06.23.08-- Emprowise, the newest sister company to OQSG, launches website

Emprowise, an online employee education source, is a new sister company formed by OQSG and other content providers. Emprowise offers high-quality graphics and multimedia training tools to educate and evaluate the workforce, on-sight and remotely, the world over.

Emprowise distinguishes itself from other providers of e-learning through Custom Course Development for any Business Entity. Our development team members possess years of knowledge and experience developing cost-effective online training solutions. These solutions aid regulatory compliance, enhance work performance, reduce company risk, cut expenses and reduce training time.

With Emprowise, all of your company records are available online and can be exported to other recordkeeping systems. Courses may be purchased through Company and individual access plans.

Emprowise Offers:

- Individual and Company access plans
- Safety Orientation Training
- Operation, Maintenance, and Emergency Response Procedures
- HR/Policy and Procedure
- Custom Course Design

Please visit www.emprowise.com or call 337-769-9608 for more information.
